MGoA CODE OF CONDUCT

The Guild is considered a safe, inclusive and supportive place allowing all attendees to enjoy classes, and to express their artistic talents with the guidance of expert tutors.

The Guild supports:

- Respect - for oneself, other participants, tutors, Guild property, diverse cultures, and different viewpoints.
- Safety and Well-being - taking care of one's own health and safety and that of others; prohibiting violence, harassment, and dangerous conduct.
- Accountability - taking responsibility for one's actions.

The Guild Expects:

- Attendance & Punctuality - arriving on time and attending all classes. If unable to attend advising the tutor.
- Guild Conduct - following directions, participating constructively, and not causing disruptions to other participants.

Consequences: A failure to participate in a respectful manner towards other participants or tutors may result in a verbal warning, suspension or expulsion from further participation.
